From worn baseball uniforms to vintage waffle makers, the new exhibit at the Sunnyvale Heritage Park Museum tells a tale of three companies that chan

The exhibit, which opened June 18, details the history of Hendy Iron Works, Westinghouse and Northrop Grumman in Sunnyvale.

Included in the exhibit are photos of factory workers, Westinghouse artifacts and models of products crafted by the companies.

Heritage Park Museum executive board member Janice Havey said that director Laura Babcock was the mastermind behind the exhibit.

"Laura, our director, came up with the idea," she said. "We had about half of this stuff in our archives; we had a lot of Hendy and Westinghouse items. Th

CENTENNIAL, Colo. -- A jury has found Colorado theater shooter James Holmes guilty of murder in the methodically planned attack that left 12 dead and 70 injured.

The verdict means the 27-year-old former neuroscience graduate student could get the death penalty for the 2012 shooting.

Jurors reached their decision Thursday after deliberating for about 13 hours over two days. They must now decide whether Holmes should be executed or

Holmes pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity, and his Prosecutors maintained the attack was meticulously plan

tal illness that he was unable to tell right from wrong he was doing.
